From the Principal

School overview

Eagle Junction State School, affectionately known as EJ, is proud of its state education history. In 2020, we will celebrate 125 years of service to our local community. We cater for children from Prep in the early years to Year 6 in the middle years.

Our school vision is to develop confident, creative learners who embrace challenge within an inclusive and inspiring learning community.

EJ is not only a great place to grow, but also a great place to learn.

Eagle Junction State School enjoys high levels of support from its community and has an excellent reputation in student performances across a wide range of curricular and extracurricular activities. Our parents, and the Parents and Citizens Association are heavily involved in school activities and decision-making. The school has been identified as a school of first choice by parents in the local area and as a result, school enrolments are now subject to an enrolment management process. Opinion surveys from students, parents and staff indicate high levels of satisfaction with the school. Our curriculum offerings are informed by the Australian Curriculum and are designed specifically for the EJSS context.

At the school level, differentiated practices are in place to cater for gifted students and students with a diverse range of learning needs. Some of the pedagogical changes that have occurred, and will continue to occur in our teaching and learning, are responses to the 2018 School Review, and the 2019-2022 Strategic Plan. We believe that it is vital that our students are able to confidently talk about themselves as active, self-aware learners and that they are armed with a 'toolkit' of strategies to help them learn. With this in mind, we have taken on the approach of Visible Learning. Visible Learning is based on the principles developed by Professor John Hattie's extensive research into what factors have the biggest impact on student learning.

A visible learner is a student who:

- can articulate what they are learning and why
- can talk about how they are learning and the strategies they are using
- can articulate their next learning step
- understands assessment tools used and what the results mean
- asks questions and clarifies
- sees errors as learning opportunities
- actively seeks feedback
- sets learning goals.

Our students use the Eagle Junction Learning Powers (learning dispositions) to assist them in talking about themselves as learners and to articulate their progress. Our development of the EJ Learning Powers (Brave, Curious, Collaborative, Creative, Focus, Persistent and Reflective) identifies the essential characteristics of an effective, life-long learner.

The school also seeks to enact the Department of Education's Strategic Plan in conjunction with a school and community vision for improvement in student achievement. The pursuit of excellence in academic, sporting and cultural endeavours, evidenced by strong school values and a strong sense of community service has enabled Eagle Junction State School to hold its own as a high performing state school with a respect for its past and for those who have shared in it.

Yours sincerely,
Adam Mathewson
Principal

Curriculum implementation

The P–12 curriculum, assessment and reporting framework specifies the curriculum, assessment and reporting requirements for all Queensland state schools' principals and staff delivering the curriculum from Prep to Year 12. Further information on school implementation of the framework is available at <https://education.qld.gov.au/curriculum/stages-of-schooling/p-12>.

Extra-curricular activities

Queensland state schools provide a wide range of subjects and extra curricula activities such as sport, art, music and school camps. Further information can be found here <https://www.qld.gov.au/education/schools/information/programs>.

How information and communication technologies are used to assist learning

Information and communication technologies (ICT) are an important part of contemporary schooling. The Australian Curriculum includes ICTs as a general capability across all learning areas, as well as Digital Technologies as a specific learning area. Further information on models used by schools to assist learning is available at <https://education.qld.gov.au/parents-and-carers/school-information/student-ict-device-programs/one-to-one-models>.

Social climate

Overview

Each Queensland state school develops and enacts policies to support an integrated approach to behaviour, learning and teaching.

Our Student Code of Conduct is our school's behaviour policy, with information about school rules, consequences and processes for addressing bullying and the use of technology. A copy of this is available on our school website.

Further information is also available at <https://www.qld.gov.au/education/schools/health>.

Parent and community engagement

Our approach to engaging with parents and the community is aligned to the departments Parent and community engagement framework. The framework helps students, schools, parents and the community to work together to maximise student learning and wellbeing. Research shows parent and community engagement that is effectively focused on student learning can deliver powerful outcomes. Further information is available at <https://education.qld.gov.au/parents-and-carers/community-engagement>

Environmental footprint

Reducing this school's environmental footprint

Environmental education has been a feature of Queensland schools for more than 30 years. In many schools it has been creatively and proactively incorporated into the curriculum in each phase of learning, and is also reflected in the school's facilities and in the actions of its principals, teachers and students.

Table 7: Environmental footprint indicators for this school

| Utility category | 2016–2017 | 2017–2018 | 2018–2019 |
|-------------------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| Electricity (kWh) | 289,198 | 284,629 | 268,647 |
| Water (kL) | 3,998 | 3,356 | 2,874 |

Note:

Consumption data is compiled from sources including ERM, Ergon, CS Energy reports and utilities data entered into OneSchool* by schools. The data provides an indication of the consumption trend in each of the utility categories which impact on this school's environmental footprint.

*OneSchool is the department's comprehensive software suite that schools use to run safe, secure, sustainable and consistent reporting and administrative processes.
